WE TEACH MORE THAN DRAMA

We teach a new way of thinking to radically shift the way we think about the correlation between art and technology.

EnActe School of Drama provides holistic, drama-based education. We believe film and theatre arts skills are essential for any career. Our success, even in changing times, is due to teaching self-thought, adaptability, resourcefulness, and social competence skills like presentation, perception, and persuasion.

TESTIMONIALS

“Our 7 year old, Ace, has developed real presentational skills with the Enacte program. It has boosted his confidence and he always has a great time engaging with the teacher and the other children. Highly recommend!” -Steven H.

“Yes. My daughter enjoyed doing the work to put on their end of quarter “show” and was very excited for us to see her performance video.” -Harker School Student

“Yes, our children gained a lot of confidence and spoke more clearly following this course. They also had a lot of fun!” -Meredith H.

“Our students learned to laugh at themselves, to be respectful of their peers, and to find that part of themselves that was real and honest. Shy students discovered a part of themselves that they had never explored and bolder students took direction and feedback as a way to refine their newly discovered gifts.”

-- Wendy Santos, Teacher at Mahanay Elementary School, Alief ISD

BEGINNING CRITICAL THINKING & CREATIVE WRITING

EnActe
School of Drama

Class Description

This popular program is designed for either elementary or middle schoolers.

A typical day begins with a screening of a short animated film (3-8 mins.)

Students then dive into a guided story & design analysis.

They will apply this critical & creative thought-process to write a story using the same logical/narrative structures.

Each class ends with each student producing an outline for a clearly communicated coherent narrative.

This program helps students learn the invaluable skill of clear and persuasive communication from a basis of storytelling. Ultimately, students will have the structures necessary to make arguments, change minds, and impact the future.

FINAL TAKEAWAY: A portfolio of story outlines you have brainstormed during your time in the class.

INTERMEDIATE CRITICAL THINKING & CREATIVE WRITING

EnActe
School of Drama

Class Description

Our most popular program continues!

Students have the opportunity to delve even deeper into story design and creative writing!

Once again, each class will begin with a screening of a previously unwatched animated short film (3-8 mins.), which will then be used to help students think critically to creatively write their own story over the duration of the entire class.

Critical Thinking & Creative Writing II features more complex and intricate narrative structures, more advanced logical exercises, and more opportunities for thinking out-of-the-box!

FINAL TAKEAWAY: Final stories written in this class will be published in an e-pub format that can be shared with students' families and friends!
